

Kink Weekend OKC 2024 Presenters and Classes

Saturday, July 20th

10:00am-11:00am – The OKC Eagle

Talk Nerdy to Me – Nerdy Bear (Route 66 Bear Contestant)

Have you ever wondered what Spider-Man is like in bed? What about, what toys are there for my tentacle fetish? Or even, is there a place to read slash fiction between Kirk and Spock? Don't worry you're not alone. In this interactive beginner class, Nerdy Bear Eric will go over different ways that you can incorporate your favorite fandoms into your kink life, whether it be through toys, art, fanfiction, cosplaying, or scenes, being a nerd has never been sexier.

Eric "The Nerdy Bear" is not your average bear. Hailing from the land of gas station pizza and buttered cows, Eric's life is nothing but extraordinary. If it's not enjoying the spice of Arrakis or imagining Spider-Man getting his sweet busy pounded by the sub/dom dynamic of Eddie Brock and Venom, he is enjoying building Legos with his boy or playing with their lovely cat Mochi. When Eric is out and about in the community, he is enjoying the eye candy at gear night, and, finally settling the debate of who shot first, Han or Greedo. It was Han. As a big nerdy bear, Eric tries to create a space of self-love and acceptance. Being bullied not only by the straight community, but also, body shamed by the queer one, Eric hopes that by living his best nerdy life in the community, he can show that there is space for everyone and bear can be beautiful.

10:00am-11:00am – The County Line

Footloose and Florentine – TonyTheGrey (Mr. Route 66 Leather Contestant)

Are you bored with flogging? Do you assume Florentine style is beyond your grasp? Is it time to broaden your flogging techniques? If so, this is the class for you. We introduce both time-tested and unorthodox methods of striking. We focus on footwork and how it impacts everything, from top to bottom. Whether novice or veteran, we want you to leave energized and excited about this dungeon staple. We need volunteers! Expect a coaching session that gives you the tools you need to master Florentine style. Tony has taught Florentine for over a decade and brings a simple system that works. Music is the final ingredient. Music adds the mood. How do you turn a sequence of strikes into a sensual dungeon dance? Join us as we redefine what it means to "Feel the beat!"

In early 2008 a very nervous Tony (He/Him) walked into a rope bondage workshop in Birmingham Alabama wearing khakis and a polo. Despite only being there to spice up his vanilla love life, his eyes were opened to a whole new world. Diving into this world head first, he discovered BDSM and never looked back. From the beginning Tony felt most at home among Leatherfolk. He sought conversations with community elders. He took the time to watch them, to listen to them, to ask them hard questions. Tony's Leather journey had begun. Tony was fortunate. He looked for good role models, and found them. Tony honed a wide variety of BDSM skills, and rapidly discovered what would be his deepest passion: teaching. The quickest way to reduce Tony to a tearful mess is for a former student to approach him and brag about how they developed a skill he taught them, or to say that he helped them find the courage to do the thing they never thought they could do. When everything else is stripped away, Tony is a Teacher. Tony is sought after for a variety of classes. Whether it's rope bondage, rhythmic impact, hypnosis, or erotic grappling, Tony has a single philosophy: "Teach the thing while they're busy laughing. Inside the dungeon, you'll often find Tony working up a sweat with a flogger in each hand. He also loves to mark up his bottom with his single tails. You may even find him sitting quietly in a corner, hypnotizing a consenting adult into believing they'd been whipped and flogged. It's very efficient, you see. Tony flags black on the left and is well known for mixing humor into basically everything he does. Cackles mixed with screams are his favorite dungeon music. Tony and his slavewife are currently working on a project to create a BDSM-friendly lodge and outdoor venue in an underserved area of Alabama. Tony is a devoted Master to his slave and wife -LadyRae-. He believes that the slave is in service to the Master, and the Master is in service to the dynamic. He is a professional computer geek by trade, and a loving father/stepfather to four teenagers. Tony is active in his local recovery community. He is a member of an improv comedy troupe, a part-time gym rat, an amateur sushi chef, and an expert at losing golf balls.

10:00am-11:00am – The Ledo Lounge

Tech Boot Closed to Attendees* - Atlas and Rev Angelique (Rote 66 Bootblack Contestants)

Each Bootblack contestant is given a boot and a set amount of time to bring that boot to the best possible condition. The boots will be provided by OKC Kink Weekend/Route 66 Leather Competitions, will be of like material and build, and be of like condition. Judges will judge based on technique, process, and end result. Each Bootblack will then be interviewed and asked questions about their process by the panel of judges.

11:15am-12:15pm – The OKC Eagle

Pawtism – Hunter (Route 66 Pet Contestant)

The complexities of neurodivergency and petplay and why someone who is neurodivergent might be interested in petplay.

Hunter is a queer trans masc pet that has been active in the community for two years but kinky for much longer. He is an Alpha to his pup, protector of one and Omega to his local pack. They are the current Co-Chair Alpha of Paws and Claws Oklahoma, an educational Pet and Handler group, and has been to multiple events helping as a demo/service bottom. Besides helping out friends and community members, he strives to continue fostering acceptance, love, and a safe space for fellow queer and neurospicy individuals.

11:15am-12:15pm – The County Line

The Bites and Growls of Primal M/s – Sir Prussian Fire and lucky

Master and slave relationships tend to follow an expected structure. However, in our practice of M/s, we chose to depart from the norm in favor of a more animalistic and energetic primal hierarchy. This is not M/s that is freely given, it is earned and conquered everyday. Where the slave is free to challenge and the Master must answer in kind.

Sir Prussian Fire (He/Him) and his collared Slave, lucky (They/she/it) live in Houston Texas. He is a Leatherman, Hedonistic Sadist, and army veteran. She is a Leathergirl, devoted slave, hedonistic masochist, and degradation slut. They operate within a 24/7 M/s dynamic, and have been in the BDSM community for nearly three decades between them. They have a passion for education and service to the community by their dedication to teaching Fire, Blood, and the most taboo of play in all forms. They also have a passion for unconventional dynamic styles and believe everyone's journey is valid.

11:15am-12:15pm – The Ledo Lounge

Leather Ace – Sexual Rebellion Without Sexual Attraction – Giant

What is it like to be asexual in the hypersexual world of kink and leather? Join me for a chat about asexuality, leather and kink and being ace in a leather space. This will be an open round-table discussion class. Open to those who identify as asexual, demisexual, grey ace, have an asexual partner or want to learn about asexuality.

Giant blew into Dallas on a haboob, dusted off his boots and became the big, queer bear you see today. He identifies as asexual pan-romantic yet found home in the hyper-sexed leather and kink community. He currently serves as president of the Lone Star Boys of Leather and works as a safer sex advocate as a Fully Professed Guard of the DFW Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence. A lover of history, he can be found in museums, libraries, and the dusty corners of antique malls throughout the nation. His passion for history served him well during his travels as International Mr. Leather Bear 2018. Now a wuzzie, he enjoys teaching classes on queer and leather history and working with various groups to preserve leather stories that will become our cultural identity and define our common history.

11:15am-12:15pm – The West Pool (The County Line courtyard)

Water Bondage – J7LeatherWolf (Mr. Route 66 Leather Contestant)

Do you enjoy bondage and breath play? Do you enjoy water? Let's combine all of these and experience a class on water bondage. We will cover the safety as well as the beautiful, sexy and hot aspects of this form of play.

J7LeatherWolf started his lifestyle journey in Wichita, KS in the beginning of 2014. His journey started with electrical play but when he found a local group that taught rope he knew he had found his true calling. J started studying and traveling to learn all he could about the art of Shibari and continues this with his rope journey today. Through his lifestyle journey he has discovered many other forms of play that he enjoys: throwing & non-throwing impact, needles, bastinado, pressure points, pony play, pet play, whips, sensory deprivation, fire cupping, barbed wire, breath play, and more. Many of these types of play he has chosen to spread his knowledge of by teaching classes. J enjoys traveling to educate and teaching what he knows to others while also learning about all the cultures this lifestyle has to offer. J leads a lifestyle group, Wichita Area Kink Demos (WAKD), in the Wichita area that promotes education into the different forms of play. Approximately 7 years ago, J discovered the Leather lifestyle while at a lifestyle camping event in Kansas City. Seeing the comradery and friendships of those in the Leather lifestyle, J decided to do some self-education on the Leather history. Through his research he discovered that the Leather lifestyle was where he saw himself continuing his journey. He continues to enjoy learning about the history of the Leather lifestyle and all of it's offerings. For the last six years, J holds a monthly Gear Night for community members at a local gay bar called J's Lounge. In addition to teaching and exploring types of play, J has helped with various types of fundraisers. J helped fundraise for the North East Oklahoma Leather Alliance, which made him an honorary member. He also helped to coordinate a fundraiser for Club Q as well as one for a member of the LGBTQ+ community.

12:30pm-1:30pm – The OKC Eagle

Professor Pupperton's Class for Peculiar Pets – Pup Aviso (Route 66 Pet Contestant)

Competing for a Title with a Disability – David Sugar

This class will be a panel discussion of titleholders and those who have competed for titles with disabilities, both seen and unseen. In this class we will discuss tips on getting ready to compete for a title if you have a disability. Topics discussed will include requesting accommodations prior to the competition and tips and tricks for the day of the competition. Since this class is an opportunity for all to learn including the presenters participants in the class will have an opportunity if they like to share what has worked for them. Since personal disabilities might be discussed in the class everything discussed will remain confidential among those in the class.

David Sugar is a collared submissive and cub on the spectrum whose true passion is helping folks with disabilities gain access to the community of leather, bears, clubs and events that he loves so much. He is the current World Cub 2023 and previously held the title Mr. Mayhem Leather Bear 2022. David has been active in the community serving on various boards including the VP of ShipMates Club of Baltimore, Treasurer for Clifton Pleasure Club and serving for a number of years on the board of the local LGBT community center helping with Baltimore Pride. David's activism in the community has looked like panel discussions, classes, disability accessibility event questionnaires, and teaming up with Wolfstryker developing a disability in kink hanky to let folks flag their kink with their disability. Showing everyone that disabled people can cruise and be just as sexy as able bodied kinksters sometimes with just a bit of accommodation.

Sailing Solo - Navigating the Kink Community as a Single or Self-Governed Submissive – Guinevere

Whether you are new to the lifestyle, in between power exchange relationships, or simply happier in an anarchy style poly model of play bdsm community involvement - As Submissive there are many forms of support, structure, and self-guided learning we can engage in independently to connect deeply with our submission when we are not actively involved in a power exchange dynamic. Join us for a mix of both practical hands-on skills and warm encouragement as we cover both the advantages and challenges of sailing solo in a coupled focused community.

Guinevere ventured out into her home community of Dallas/Fort Worth in late 2006. She tends to approach life with more of a focus on "Who" she wants to be, versus "What" she wants to be. "I believe each of us sees our own distinct "shade of blue" in every one of the quick descriptor checkboxes, that said the ones that hit closest to the mark for me would be: little, poly, bi, & "not in charge person." Her passions include; education, power exchange, energy exchange, community service, music, good books, tiaras, and being a part of the change she wants to see in the world. She is an experienced educator both inside the BDSM community and beyond and has taught classes for Beyond Vanilla, The Dallas Submissive Mentors Program, and several local groups in Texas and the surrounding states..

Taste the Rainbow: Rainbow Play for Beginners – Sir Prussian Fire and lucky

DISCOVER THE RAINBOW. TASTE THE RAINBOW. CONTENT WARNING Rainbow play also known as puke play is an extreme edge play that can scare, squick and scar even the most advanced experienced players. In this workshop, we will explore the psychology of this vulnerable inducing connective play and its relationship with Humiliation Degradation and Objectification. Some tips and tricks such as a “good, better and best food” list and foods to avoid, prepping not only the stomach but also your area, helpful tips for quick clean ups and the importance of aftercare for your relationship as well as your body. And of course... make someone TASTE THE RAINBOW...

Sir Prussian Fire (He/Him) and his collared Slave, lucky (They/she/it) live in Houston Texas. He is a Leatherman, Hedonistic Sadist, and army veteran. She is a Leathergirl, devoted slave, hedonistic masochist, and degradation slut. They operate within a 24/7 M/s dynamic, and have been in the BDSM community for nearly three decades between them. They have a passion for education and service to the community by their dedication to teaching Fire, Blood, and the most taboo of play in all forms. They also have a passion for unconventional dynamic styles and believe everyone's journey is valid.

Little Wonders - celina

Come together to unveil the intricate world of ageplay and age regression. What's the different types of ageplay? What are the stigmas behind it? We will delve into the diverse dimensions of these psychological concepts while skillfully treading the fine line between childlike innocence and mature sensibilities. Within this class we will tackle the differences between age regression, age play, spicy ageplay and dark ageplay. Warning: topics of sexual ageplay and trauma induced ageplay will probably be discussed. Celina is a trauma informed educator and will provide crisis intervention resources.

Celina, the 2023 Show Me Leather Little, has been an integral part of the community since 2017. Proudly identifying as both a little and kitten, she embarks on her title year with a purpose. With a fervent desire to destigmatize ageplay, she aims to educate and bridge the diverse ageplay communities across Missouri. Radiating warmth and openness, she welcomes newcomers, while tirelessly advocating for inclusive spaces for growth and learning. Celina's vibrant presence fosters unity and acceptance, ensuring littles' voices resonate at every event.
